Fund performance as of December 31, 2023

Digital copy available at Canadalife.com/informationfolders

The Canada Life Assurance Company is the sole issuer of the individual variable annuity policy described in the information folder.

This fund facts booklet forms part of the information folder. Both the information folder and fund facts booklet must be received.

Any part of your contribution allocated to a segregated fund is invested at the risk of the policyowner and may increase or decrease in value.

Fund Facts

This fund facts booklet, which forms part of the Canada Life investment fund information folder, contains individual fund facts for the investment funds available under the individual variable annuity policy. You can choose to invest in one or more of the funds available in this booklet.

The individual fund facts describe the key features of each investment fund including its risk level, past performance, suitability, guarantees, and what fees and charges may apply.

The individual fund facts is not complete without the following description of What if I change my mind? and For more information.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it was mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email, fax or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

Are there any guarantees?

This fund is being offered under an insurance contract. It comes with guarantees that may protect your investment if the markets go down. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. For details, please refer to the information folder and contract.

Who is this fund for?

A person who is investing for the medium to longer term, wants exposure to multi-managers in one fund with a target of no more than 25 per cent invested in equities and is comfortable with low risk.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how the fund has performed over the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units). Returns are after the MER has been deducted.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the fund will perform in the future. Also, your actual return will depend on the guarantee option you choose and your personal tax situation.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in the fund on December 31, 2013 and chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units) would have $1,211.52 on December 31, 2023. This works out to an average of 1.94% a year.

Year-by-year returns (%)

This chart shows how the fund has performed in each of the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units). In the past 10 years, the fund was up in value 8 years and down in value 2 years.

How risky is it?

The risk rating for this fund is Low.

The value of your investments can go down. Please see the Fund risks section of the information folder for further details.

How much does it cost?

The following table shows the fees and expenses you could pay to invest in or redeem units of the fund and will depend on the sales charge option you choose.

1. Sales charges

Sales charge option	What you pay	How it works
Back-end load units As of June 1, 2023, the back-end load sales charge option is only available for new contributions received from existing policyowners or for internal transfers as per our administrative guidelines.	If you redeem units within: 1 year of investing, you pay 4.50% 2 years of investing, you pay 4.25% 3 years of investing, you pay 3.90% 4 years of investing, you pay 3.50% 5 years of investing, you pay 3.00% 6 years of investing, you pay 2.35% 7 years of investing, you pay 1.50% After 7 years, you pay 0.00%	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •When you invest, Canada Life pays a commission of up to 5%. Any early redemption fee you pay goes to Canada Life. •You can redeem up to 10% (20% for RRIF type policies) of your units each year without paying an early redemption. •The early redemption fee is a set rate. It is deducted from the amount you withdraw. •You can exchange to units of other funds under the contract at any time without paying an early redemption fee. •The early redemption fee schedule is based on the date you invested the premium.
No-load units	There is no fee to invest or redeem units.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •You can redeem units without paying an early redemption fee. •You can exchange to units of other funds under the contract at any time.

2. Ongoing expenses

The MER includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your investment. For details about how the guarantees work, see your insurance contract.

Guarantee option	MER (Annual rate as a % of the fund's value)
75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - Back-end load units	2.38
75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - No-load units	2.38

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - No-load units	1.96

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - No-load units	1.98

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

It is deducted from the amount you withdraw. •You can exchange to units of other funds under the contract at any time without paying an early redemption fee. •The early redemption fee schedule is based on the date you invested the premium.
No-load units	There is no fee to invest or redeem units.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •You can redeem units without paying an early redemption fee. •You can exchange to units of other funds under the contract at any time.

2. Ongoing expenses

The MER includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your investment. For details about how the guarantees work, see your insurance contract.

Guarantee option	MER (Annual rate as a % of the fund's value)
75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - Back-end load units	2.81
75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - No-load units	2.81

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - No-load units	2.86

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

Are there any guarantees?

This fund is being offered under an insurance contract. It comes with guarantees that may protect your investment if the markets go down. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. For details, please refer to the information folder and contract.

Who is this fund for?

A person who is investing for the longer term and seeking the potential for long-term growth by investing in a portfolio of Canadian real estate properties and are comfortable with low to moderate risk due to the ups and downs of the real estate market. Redemptions may be suspended during any period that the segregated fund does not have sufficient cash or readily marketable securities to meet requests for redemptions. This fund should be considered as a long-term investment and is not suitable for a person who may need to quickly convert their holdings to cash.

Notes

Over the past five years, the Real Estate fund has bought $471 million worth of real property and has sold $595 million worth.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how the fund has performed over the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units). Returns are after the MER has been deducted.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the fund will perform in the future. Also, your actual return will depend on the guarantee option you choose and your personal tax situation.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in the fund on December 31, 2013 and chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units) would have $1,304.08 on December 31, 2023. This works out to an average of 2.69% a year.

Year-by-year returns (%)

This chart shows how the fund has performed in each of the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units). In the past 10 years, the fund was up in value 8 years and down in value 2 years.

How risky is it?

The risk rating for this fund is Low to moderate.

The value of your investments can go down. Please see the Fund risks section of the information folder for further details.

Are there any guarantees?

This fund is being offered under an insurance contract. It comes with guarantees that may protect your investment if the markets go down. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. For details, please refer to the information folder and contract.

Who is this fund for?

A person who is investing for the longer term, seeking the growth potential of global stocks and is comfortable with low to moderate risk. Since the fund invests in stocks its value is affected by stock prices, which can rise and fall in a short period of time.

Notes

Effective October 2023, this fund's risk rating has changed from "Moderate" to "Low to moderate". In November 2016 Irish Life Investment Management Limited assumed portfolio management responsibilities from Mackenzie Investments. With this change the segregated fund changed from investing primarily in stocks of North American companies to investing primarily in stocks of companies anywhere in the world. The performance before that date was achieved under the previous manager and investment objective. No other changes were made to the segregated fund.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how the fund has performed over the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units). Returns are after the MER has been deducted.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the fund will perform in the future. Also, your actual return will depend on the guarantee option you choose and your personal tax situation.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in the fund on December 31, 2013 and chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units) would have $1,668.48 on December 31, 2023. This works out to an average of 5.25% a year.

Year-by-year returns (%)

This chart shows how the fund has performed in each of the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units). In the past 10 years, the fund was up in value 6 years and down in value 4 years.

How risky is it?

The risk rating for this fund is Low to moderate.

The value of your investments can go down. Please see the Fund risks section of the information folder for further details.

Any early redemption fee you pay goes to Canada Life. •You can redeem up to 10% (20% for RRIF type policies) of your units each year without paying an early redemption. •The early redemption fee is a set rate. It is deducted from the amount you withdraw. •You can exchange to units of other funds under the contract at any time without paying an early redemption fee. •The early redemption fee schedule is based on the date you invested the premium.
No-load units	There is no fee to invest or redeem units.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •You can redeem units without paying an early redemption fee. •You can exchange to units of other funds under the contract at any time.

2. Ongoing expenses

The MER includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your investment. For details about how the guarantees work, see your insurance contract.

Guarantee option	MER (Annual rate as a % of the fund's value)
75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - Back-end load units	2.86
75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - No-load units	2.86

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

The following table shows the fees and expenses you could pay to invest in or redeem units of the fund and will depend on the sales charge option you choose.

1. Sales charges

Sales charge option	What you pay	How it works
Back-end load units As of June 1, 2023, the back-end load sales charge option is only available for new contributions received from existing policyowners or for internal transfers as per our administrative guidelines.	If you redeem units within: 1 year of investing, you pay 4.50% 2 years of investing, you pay 4.25% 3 years of investing, you pay 3.90% 4 years of investing, you pay 3.50% 5 years of investing, you pay 3.00% 6 years of investing, you pay 2.35% 7 years of investing, you pay 1.50% After 7 years, you pay 0.00%	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •When you invest, Canada Life pays a commission of up to 5%. Any early redemption fee you pay goes to Canada Life. •You can redeem up to 10% (20% for RRIF type policies) of your units each year without paying an early redemption. •The early redemption fee is a set rate. It is deducted from the amount you withdraw. •You can exchange to units of other funds under the contract at any time without paying an early redemption fee. •The early redemption fee schedule is based on the date you invested the premium.
No-load units	There is no fee to invest or redeem units.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •You can redeem units without paying an early redemption fee. •You can exchange to units of other funds under the contract at any time.

2. Ongoing expenses

The MER includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your investment. For details about how the guarantees work, see your insurance contract.

Guarantee option	MER (Annual rate as a % of the fund's value)
75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - Back-end load units	2.98
75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - No-load units	2.98

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

Are there any guarantees?

This fund is being offered under an insurance contract. It comes with guarantees that may protect your investment if the markets go down. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. For details, please refer to the information folder and contract.

Who is this fund for?

A person who is investing for the longer term, seeking the growth potential of companies in the emerging markets and is comfortable with moderate to high risk. Since the fund invests in stocks its value is affected by stock prices, which can rise and fall in a short period of time.

Notes

Effective October 2023, this fund's risk rating has changed from "High" to "Moderate to high". No other changes were made to the segregated fund.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how the fund has performed over the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units). Returns are after the MER has been deducted.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the fund will perform in the future. Also, your actual return will depend on the guarantee option you choose and your personal tax situation.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in the fund on December 31, 2013 and chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units) would have $1,496.36 on December 31, 2023. This works out to an average of 4.11% a year.

Year-by-year returns (%)

This chart shows how the fund has performed in each of the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee option (back-end load units). In the past 10 years, the fund was up in value 7 years and down in value 3 years.

How risky is it?

The risk rating for this fund is Moderate to high.

The value of your investments can go down. Please see the Fund risks section of the information folder for further details.

75% maturity and 75% death benefit guarantee - No-load units	3.27

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales charge option	Trailing commission
Back-end load units	Up to 0.50% of the value of your investment each year.
No-load units	Up to 1% of the value of your investment each year.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or exchange units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or exchange within 90 days of investing in the fund.

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.
